

Foul Ball?

The battle for ownership of the Dodgers has escalated as Frank and Jamie McCourt go through divorce proceedings. So the Business Journal asks:

What would be the best outcome for the Dodgers?

It's obviously Frank's team; but what's best for the club? Look what happened in San Diego with John Moores. The team will need to be sold. As a Dodgers fan, we need to keep focused and find someone that just cares about winning – not the money. Eli Broad seems to be the perfect candidate.
